

Assessor Says Farms Won't Beat Taxes With Zoning

Arguments that farmers will get lower assessments if the agricultural zoning amendment is passed were deflated somewhat Monday night by County Assessor Russell Horstmann.

Horstmann told a Women For Better Government meeting in Washington High School that zoning is a secondary consideration to actual use of the land.

If the owner determines that raising crops is the "highest and best use" of the land, and farms it, then, said the assessor, he has no choice except to value it as farm property, even though it may adjoin a highly-assessed subdivision.

Horstmann left a loophole. Said he:

"There are sometimes special considerations or circumstances when a parcel of land cannot be put to its highest use because of zoning restrictions, and this must be taken into consideration in determining its value."

His replies on farm zoning were excerpts he read from a letter written last week to Centerville.

Adoption of the agricultural zoning amendment was deferred until tomorrow in a stormy session Tuesday by the Board of Supervisors.

Attorney LeRoy Broun, answering Broun's inquiries on behalf of some clients. Said Horstmann:

"If the highest and best use of a parcel of land is for agriculture, and it appears it will remain (so) for a period of time, we would value it the same as other similarly situated agricultural lands regardless of the fact that it may be zoned for residences or even industry."

However, he made this distinction: when agricultural land is rezoned for residences, its value increases.

The assessor deftly parried a quiver-full of pointed queries, sometimes turning them over to two staff technicians, Chief Deputy Aubrey Holmes or Chief Appraiser O. W. Brothers.

He stressed that Alameda County has never had an overall reappraisal in its 100-year history, although it paid for one it didn't use in 1927. Horstmann said he started one two years ago and expects to finish it by 1955. As a sidelight, he reminded his audience that the State may force arbitrary valuations soon on counties who don't re-appraise and bring their assessments in line with state averages.

Some of the questions:

L. S. Williams: "Do you consider that a subdivision next to a farm raises the value of that farm for tax purposes?"

Brothers: "It's one factor, but there are many others—what other owners consider as market value; water, soil, topography, net income expected in the future . . ."

Jack Parry: "If a subdivision, valued at $3000 an acre, went next to farm land worth $500 an acre, what would have the greatest impact on your judgment?"

NILES MERCHANTS BACK 'ESSANAY DAYS' FETE HERE

Plans to attract widespread attention to Niles as a cradle of the film industry were approved Tuesday by the Niles Merchants' Association and its parent Chamber of Commerce.

The businessmen okeed formation of a three-man committee headed by Lester Whitaker Jr., which will concentrate on a celebration to commemorate the 40th anniversary of the construction of the Essanay Studios. Date for the fiesta will be announced.

The studios were built in 1913 at the corner of First and G Streets. During their operation, such stars as Charlie Chaplin, Ben Turpin, Wallace Beery and "Broncho Billy" Anderson worked in Niles.

President E. C. Parks told Whitaker to investigate:

1. Cost of a highway sign to attract passersby to Niles.
2. Cost of a suitable marker on the Essanay site.

3. Dedication ceremonies for the marker, to which oldtime stars could be invited.

At the chamber meeting which followed, purchase of the metal markers was authorized, on motion of Dr. T. C. Wilson.

Theaterman Ted Tully told the merchants he will try to obtain prints of the silent films made by Essanay in Niles. He was named to the committee together with Stuart Nixon, Township Register editor, whose recent series of articles on Essanay spurred the move. Chamber President C. W. Chrysler named Peter D. Juhl to work with Whitaker's committee.

Whitaker agreed to report back at the next meeting, May 5. Parks also announced:

1. The parent Niles Chamber of Commerce will proceed with plans for luncheons to honor local industries—"show them we want them here."

2. New officers will be elected May 5.

3. The group will be represented in Oakland April 30 at the supervisors' hearing on residential zoning for Adobe Acres. The merchants have supported the home-zoning issue, claiming it will bring needed housing to Niles.

Sportsmen's Shoot

The Niles Sportsmen's Club will hold its annual spring ham-and-bacon shoot Sunday on the Niles-Mission Road Range.

Anthony Fields, chairman of the event, reminds the public everyone is invited. Gate prizes will be awarded as well as prizes for member-shooters.

NEWARK ZONING

Rezoning of Newark will be discussed at a session of the local chamber of commerce in the Newark Youth Center, according to Secretary J. S. Oliveira. The County Planning Commission will hold its first hearing on rezoning both Newark and Irvington the following day in Oakland.

A MAN & HIS DOG ON AN OUTING

He was born to wander . . . That's three-year-old Kenny Silva, who was the object of a frantic 4 1/2-hour search by deputy sheriffs and by his parents and neighbors here Tuesday afternoon.

Kenny and his pet black puppy wandered off into the hills behind the Castro Ranch, north of Mission San Jose.

It was 5:30 p.m. before the nomad pair were found near the ranch by Deputy Clair Cook. Kenny's mother said it wasn't the first time the young explorer has left home, but that it was the longest time he has stayed away.

The eighth grade class of the Centerville Elementary School will attend the Shrine Circus in the Oakland Auditorium next Wednesday.

The class officers are: Manuel Arias, president; Pat Owen and Edwin Amaral, vice-presidents; Carolyn Hoskey, secretary, and Manuel Baptiste and Joyce Howell.

TRAGEDY SCENE — A Canyon Heights neighbor boy views the interior of the home where Judy Guzman, 3, died in a flash fire last week. Friends and interested organizations are caring for the stricken family. (Register Photo)

TOWNSHIP AIDS STRICKEN TOTS

Washington Township opened its heart this week to the George Guzman family, which lost its home and three-year-old daughter in a tragic fire last Wednesday in Canyon Heights.

Almost before the fire which killed Judy Marie Guzman had cooled, offers of aid were pouring in to her stricken parents from neighbors, veterans' groups and welfare organizations.

Guzman is a disabled World War II veteran. Mrs. Guzman expects another baby shortly. The couple has seven more children.

Two neighbors, Ray Andrade and Mrs. Nadine Clark, immediately set out to gather cash, clothing, bedding and furniture. Within hours they had enough to equip a small house.

Total cash contributions by mid-week hit $259.60, according to Wallace Pond of Irvington, commander of Washington Township Post, American Legion, to which much of the money was channeled.

Leaders of the Veterans' Council, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and similar organizations produced pledges of even more aid. The Salvation Army, Child Welfare Association, and Red Cross also stepped into the breach.

Temporary quarters for the Guzmans are being prepared in Canyon Heights. Insurance will partly cover the loss of the house, which was gutted when children upset a can of paint thinner near a heater pilot-light.

Guzman is employed by a Centerville trucking concern.

Funeral services for Judy Marie were held Saturday in San Jose.

BOY, 4, SAVES BABY BROTHER IN FIRE

A 4-year-old boy saved his baby brother from a blazing house on Vallejo Street in Niles late yesterday, in a drama-packed episode which narrowly missed repeating last week's fatal fire in Canyon Heights.

The youngsters—one a babe in arms—were grandchildren of Mrs. Jaramilla Rosario. Mrs. Rosario was minding them for her daughter when flames burst out in a downstairs kitchen.

The distracted woman rushed from the burning 2-story house screaming that the children were inside.

The two older boys, Richard Bath, 4; and his brother, Cruz, 3, also ran out.

At this point the oldest boy, Richard, remembered his infant brother—aged six months—was still in the front room. He ran back inside and carried him to safety.

The three tots are children of Mrs. Rosario's daughter, Mrs. Caroline Bath.

The old frame house was virtually gutted by the flames, despite efforts of Niles volunteer firemen, who sped to the scene.

Hildegarde Tells of Niles 'Kiss' Slaying . . . But Pleads Innocent

By STUART NIXON

Hildegarde Garni Pelton, a woman scorned, showed in Centerville justice court Tuesday she will fight to escape the gas chamber for the "kiss" murder of her husband near Niles February 1.

Mrs. Pelton, expressionless but with eyes downcast, made a barely-audible "not-guilty" plea before Judge E. A. Quaresma.

Her reddish-blond hair was set off by a severe black knit dress.

Judge Quaresma set May 5 for preliminary hearing to determine whether Hildegarde must stand trial for the fatal shooting of William Pelton, the ex-GI whose coldness Hildegarde claims forced her to shoot him.

Later, in a quiet interview with reporters outside the courtroom, Hildegarde told in matter-of-fact style how she met Bill Pelton near Munich in September, 1945; how he wooed and won her, and how his love cooled when they reached the United States.

Prompted by Public Defender George Nye, the round-faced German postwar bride said Pelton took her to the Beach near San Francisco, where they set up their strife-torn housekeeping, and taught her to use firearms in a shooting-gallery.

"I didn't want to learn," she said, in a heavy German accent. Her poise cracked visibly when she related how she tried to win back Pelton's love, but without success. He ridiculed her clumsy attempts, and struck her, she said.

Finally she broke away, fled to Arizona, where she bought a .22-caliber pistol with the intention of committing suicide, she said.

"My life was gone when I learned I meant nothing to him," she asserted. "He told me he didn't want a divorce—it was too much trouble. He said it had been too much trouble for us to get married—too much red tape."

Finally she returned to Pelton in their South San Francisco apartment, she said, only to be greeted with divorce papers. She refused to read them.

Then, late in January, Pelton told her to get out.

"He told me 'You have to go,'" she related. "When I said 'Where shall I go—I have no place', he told me: 'I don't care—you just have to go.'"

Then he bundled her belongings into his small car, drove her to Niles, where they stopped in Solon Brothers bar, quarreled again. Then they drove to a spot near the steel mill where Hildegarde said he ordered her to get out and walk. As she did so, she said, she drew the pistol from her purse and shot him, she thinks four times.

After planting a kiss on Pelton's bloody forehead, Hildegarde says, she tried to shoot herself in the head, but the pistol refused to fire. (Continued on Page 4)

SHINN ORCHARD IS SOLD FOR 159-HOME TRACT IN NILES

A 159-home tract only a few blocks from downtown Niles was announced today by Dan Bodily, builder.

Bodily disclosed he has purchased more than 35 acres of orchard from Mrs. J. C. Shinn next to the California Nursery, where he plans to erect the homes, starting this summer.

Price of the land was not disclosed but observers estimated it at more than $4000 per acre.

The contractor said the homes will be of conventional design and will be priced from $11,500 up. Some probably will be in the $25,000 class, he added, and may be built to the purchaser's plan if desired.

Bodily said he has not named the new tract, first large one to be scheduled so close to Niles. However he announced townspeople who wish to may mail suggested names to The Township Register. Bodily said he will reward the person who submits the selected name by naming one of his new streets after him.

The tract runs between School Street and Hillview Drive to the lake beside Alameda Creek.

Bodily said he will submit plans for approval of the County Planning Commission within a week.

He hopes to start construction before August, he added.

Meantime another 239-home tract east of Ellsworth Orchard was seeking commission approval this week. It is proposed by the Clyde Lindsay Company. Final okehs appeared to be held up until some method can be agreed upon to drain water through the Western Pacific right-of-way west of the subdivision.

And on Olive Avenue, east of Irvington, Jack Prouty of Niles this week asked permission to build a 190-home tract on some 25 acres of land.

MEASLES, MUMPS HERE

Three cases of measles and two of mumps were reported in Washington Township last week to Dr. J. C. Malcolm, county health officer.

JUHL NAMED '53 CRUSADE HEAD

Peter D. Juhl, district manager for the Pacific Gas & Electric Company, was elected campaign manager of the 1953 Washington Township United Crusade at a luncheon here yesterday.

Juhl was named to the post by a committee headed by Bruce Michael, president of the local Community Chest, which is one of the agencies of the United appeal.

Accepting the post, Juhl praised the work of the 1952 campaign chairman, Maurice B. Marks, in putting over the successful drive last year in which more than $20,000 was raised for welfare and youth agencies here.

Then Juhl appealed to all Townshippers to cooperate in the drive this fall.

W. H. Park, East Bay United Crusade general chairman, was featured speaker at the meeting in the International Kitchen. He outlined plans for the coming drive.

Irvington Zoning

A special town meeting to discuss zoning in Irvington will be held in the local grammar school May 15.

This was the decision Tuesday of the Irvington Chamber of Commerce.

Meantime, according to President Wallace Pond, the proposed "Master Plan" for the town will be displayed in the Irvington post office for residents to view and present their own ideas.

NEW CRUSADE CHAIRMAN — Named chairman of the Washington Township United Crusade yesterday was Peter Juhl (center), local manager for the Pacific Gas & Electric Co. Juhl was congratulated by the 1952 chairman, Maurice B. Marks (checkered jacket) and by Bruce Michael, president of the local Community Chest. The Crusade will open next fall. (Register Photo)

This is a letter of appreciation for the medical service my 12-day-old baby did not receive on the night of March 25. He had a severe case of diarrhea. One of our local doctors refused to see him because he had only come to his office on an emergency case.

What would you call my case? I did receive medical service that same night from Santa Clara from a doctor who was on his day off.

A very grateful mother,

MRS. VERA KLEIN.

MYSTERY MAN WAS AN AD SALESMAN

We ran out of room last week and had to skip the Mystery Man feature. But here he is again this week. Guess this prominent Town-shipper from the clues we give you in the following article, and if you can't, then look for the answer elsewhere in the paper.

He was born in San Francisco. His father owned property in Washington Township, on which he kept busy early and late. So after a while the family moved to Hayward.

Our subject went to high school in Hayward, Berkeley, then, to college at Santa Clara. He graduated from St. Mary's in 1930. Active in athletics, he played freshman football at Santa Clara.

After graduation, he tried selling advertising for one of San Francisco's largest daily newspapers. He specialized in retail stores, hotels. Later he branched into advertising education and publicity work. Later this training was to serve him well.

He came to the Township to live and work in 1941. But war clouds brought him into the Army. As an artillery communications man, he served for a time in Ft. Lewis, Washington.

Then his father died, and the family property required his attention. He was discharged, returned here, and has been a Township fixture ever since.

Always active in civic affairs, he recently was named head of an organization which takes in all Northern California, and which numbers more than 500 members. In this capacity, it is our Mystery Man's job to make frequent trips to Sacramento, where he must appear before the Legislature and before Legislative committees.

His hobby? Duck shooting. He has his own pond here.

He is a Rotarian, and also belongs to several professional groups.

Now he owns or leases more than 750 acres of land, produces a commodity that is a daily necessity to everyone who wants strong bones and teeth. Is he advertising-minded on this subject? Just ask him!

Yes, girls, he's still a bachelor! Guess Who!

ALL SET FOR JR. GRAND NATIONAL

HER SIGHTS LEVELED on the title of Host Counties Queen of the 1953 Junior Grand National Livestock Exposition and Arena Show, Miss Mary Ann Bonaccorsi, San Francisco 17-year-old beauty, takes a sharpshooter's lesson from Army Sgt. SUZY SEZ...

With modern methods of child raising getting so much publicity it does my heart good to hear the child of one of Orchard Park's most avid "baby book" mothers explaining about the tooth fairy, to an un-initiated friend.

Going the rounds at W.U.H.S.: One angry skunk to another, "So do you!"

How about a word of appreciation to your child's overworked school teacher? Parents are quick to complain or criticize the school and teachers, and forget to praise honest effort and amazing patience on the part of the teachers. It is a job most of us would avoid, no matter how much we love children.

A nagging wife is easy to recognize, unless you are viewing her face in YOUR mirror.

Every family should have at least one member well trained in First Aid. The knowledge necessary to save a life may be had by attending classes, which are free, now available at Washington Hi Evening School.

The door to success is a revolving door. Unless you watch your step you wind up on the sidewalk.

Where, oh where, are the youngsters who used to trudge miles each way, with a pole and a bent pin, to go fishing in some pool or stream? They must be the parents of the adolescents who now drive many more miles, to go sea fishing.

Too often birthdays grow into birthdays!

Overheard at a certain Township post office: "I don't mind them reading my post cards, but when the postmaster asks me questions about their contents, that is going a bit too far!"

A new song, which must have been written by the Reno Chamber of Commerce, says "Made a Lot'a Dough in Reno..." and a certain local couple dispute the statement quite heatedly. In fact, Mr. and Mrs. J. barely made it home, on their credit card. They now say they think Donner Pass should be closed to traffic more often.

One Township minister told his congregation on Easter Sunday, "Thank you for coming, see you next Christmas."

So long...

A budget meeting of the Washington Township Community Chest will be held April 23 at 8 p.m. in the County Building, according to Secretary C. B. Freitas.

SEWER DISTRICT MAPS EXPANSION

Keeping ahead of suburban growth here, the Union Sanitary District last week filed for future reference a guide on how to care for more than 2500 new homes in the next few years.

Engineer Harry Goodridge submitted the plan. It shows how the district could run lines to annex 2275 acres near Newark and Centerville.

On part of this land, two housing developments comprising 2500 houses are scheduled. One, with 1000 homes, is in the Dairy-Mayhews Landing Road region of Newark. The other, estimated at 1500 homes, is on the Patterson Ranch north of Thornton Avenue.

Board Chairman George Coit stresses subdividers will have to pay for any new lines. Cost of sewer lines into the Patterson tract alone is set at more than $300,000.

The district recently floated a $250,000 bond issue to provide for expansion of its facilities. No further expansion is contemplated at the moment, Coit stresses, but Goodridge's plan will be available if needed.

The Union Sanitary District 6140 acres in Niles, Centerville and Newark, has more than 40 miles of sewer lines.

Bids will be opened April 29 on a $65,000 outfall sanitary line from the Newark treatment plant into the bay. The 36-inch line will more than double the run-off from the plant, now served only by a 14-inch line. The new 6000-foot trunk will replace the 1923-vintage line.

A 15-inch line into Southern Pacific industrial property south of Central Avenue is slated to be completed this week.

ALL DOLLED UP — Mrs. Alma Fritzie, Redwood City doll collector, shows some of her prizes to Mrs. Robert McIvor of Irvington and Karyn McIvor, 2½. The collection will be displayed in Irvington April 23 at Westminster Hall of the Community Presbyterian Church. (Ken Foster Photo)

FAMED DOLL COLLECTION ON SHOW FOR IRVINGTON CHURCH PROGRAM

By MILDRED FOSTER

A Foreign Doll Show and program will be presented by Mrs. Alma Fritzie on April 23 at Westminster Hall of the Irvington Community Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Fritzie is a world traveler whose hobby of doll collecting began in 1939 with the purchase of a doll in Japan. The now fabulous collection numbers over 500 dolls, each in native costume.

Traveling with her husband, Herbert, a drilling superintendent for various oil companies, their itinerary throughout the Middle and Far East reads like a travel folder—Istanbul, Damascus, Baghdad, Bombay, Hong Kong. For ten years they lived in Saudi Arabia. In each of the cities and countries, Mrs. Fritzie added new dolls to her collection. Or as Mr. Fritzie remarks: "We saw the cities by going after the dolls!"

While most of the dolls have been personally collected, some have come as gifts. One of these is a Swedish farmer of hand-carved wood. Two other especially prized dolls were obtained in the tiny country of Eritrea, near Ethiopia. Mrs. Fritzie found to her surprise that there were no dolls for sale—anywhere. But being determined—as well as a charming lady—when she left the country she had two dolls made especially for her. One was in Coptic Christian dress and the other in the costume of an Abyssinian married woman.

Mrs. Fritzie is a native San Franciscan who enjoys sharing her hobby with her friends—the public. Mr. Fritzie is from the South, Los Angeles, that is. His wife now says, "We now live half-way between the two—in Redwood City. (A woman's half-way?)"

The dolls will be on display, beginning at 1 o'clock. Mrs. Fritzie will speak at 2 p.m. A tea will follow the program, which is being sponsored by the Ad-A-Mites, young matrons' group of the church. Tickets may be obtained by calling Irvington 122-J or Newark 3-3902.

DDT Kills Centipedes

Vegetable fields infested with garden centipede can be cleaned up with 20 pounds of actual DDT per acre. Forty pounds of 50 per cent DDT wettable powder dusted on the ground and then worked in has lasted five years on Lee Williams' field at Irvington, says Farm Advisor Lee Benson. Jerry Fry at Mt. Eden used BHC at eight pounds per acre and secured good control prior to planting sugar beets. BHC is not recommended for many vegetable crops due to off-taste of the plants, Benson says.

Manganese Spraying

April 15-20 is the correct time to apply manganese sulphate to apricot trees to correct the deficiency that causes mottled or "zebra leaf," says Farm Advisor Lee Benson, who worked out the timing, amounts, and material to be used with co-operators Manuel Freitas, Manuel Bernardo, Earl Wallace, M. V. Soito, Clarence Oliveira and Joe Maciel of Centerville and Niles.

Two pounds of 80 per cent material or 2½ pounds of 65 per cent per 100 gallons water is all that is needed. No spreader is necessary. The material costs about eight cents per pound.

and daughters, Patsy and Charlene, visited Mrs. Rose Recard of Mission San Jose on Sunday.

SPRSI GRAND PRESIDENT Mrs. Mary Astarita will make her official visit to Council 105 of Irvington today at 2 p.m. Their deputy, Mrs. Mary L. S. George of Centerville, will install officers for the coming term. Members from all councils are invited to attend at the IOOF Hall in Irvington.

FULL PRODUCTION

With 34 men employed in two shifts, Newark's Bulldog Pallet Company last week entered full production less than three months after its opening, according to Plant Manager L. K. Kirksey. The factory specializes in wooden cargo platforms for canneries, brick-and-tile firms and breweries. It is located on Haley Road.

Fruit sizes up larger and ripens more evenly when the manganese is applied to trees showing severe symptoms, Benson adds.

4 SCHOOL BOARD CONTESTS SEEN

With last night's deadline for filing, school trustee contests had developed in three Township elementary school districts and in the high school district.

The elections will be held on May 15.

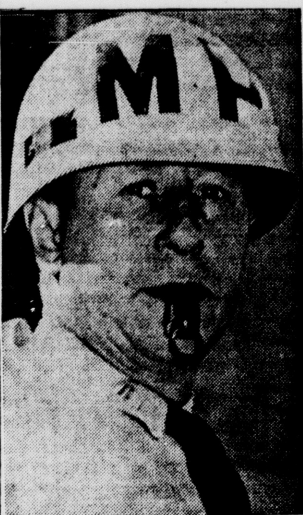

Latest to file, in Newark, is Raymond L. Bernardo, 39, Morton Salt Co. employee and resident of Newark for the past 18 years. He lives at 688 Mulberry Street.

Bernardo is opposing the incumbent, Dr. James A. Robertson, chemist.

Bernardo's father, Manuel, high school district incumbent, also is running. He and Board Chairman Sam G. Scott of Newark are in the race for the two seats which fall vacant this year, as well as 29-year-old Frank Borghi Jr., of Decoto.

Other contests loom in Niles, where Mrs. Sally Lee and William Tyson have filed for the post vacated by George Burr; and in Decoto, where incumbent H. A. Searles is opposed by Edmund K. Cummings of Hillview Crest.

In Centerville, incumbent Mrs. Mary Rodriguez is unopposed, as are Melvin C. Leal in Warm

MP IN HAWAII—M/Sgt. William Stancisco of Newark is now a student at the U.S. Army's Advanced Military Police School at Fort Shafter, Hawaii.

Springs, H. Graydon Spurlock in Alvarado, and M. J. Overacker Jr. in Mission San Jose.

In Irvington at a late hour no one had filed for the single seat which comes up for vote this year. It currently is occupied by Dr. E. M. Grimmer Sr.

NILES STEELWORKERS ASK AID FOR BOYS' ATHLETIC CLUB IN TOWNSHIP

A Niles steelworkers' union this week was going full blast on an athletic club for Township boys.

The project was born at an April 6 meeting of Local 3367 of the United Steelworkers of America (CIO) in Niles.

Member William H. Chivers broached the plan, and was named by President Leon Curtis to head a committee on the project. Other committeemen are A. L. Pearce, Joe Campbell and Troy Holderfield.

Last Saturday, the union called local youths to their union hall on First Street. Fifty-seven youngsters between 11 and 17 responded, and were registered.

Encouraged by the turnout, Chivers' committee decided to expand participation, and ask for financial and working cooperation from parents and civic groups.

Stressing "the need for a community project of this kind," Chivers has called another meeting for 9 a.m. Saturday in the union hall, to which the public is invited.

'HOME RULE' STUDY IS NEARLY READY

The Township's appetite to know what the experts think of local incorporation was whetted Monday with the announcement a Coro Foundation survey of this area will be ready next week.

LeRoy Broun, Centerville attorney who sparked the survey last summer, made the disclosure before the local chamber of Commerce.

Broun sought and got $120 at the luncheon session to underwrite additional cost of printing the survey. Two hundred fifty copies of the 50-page report will be distributed to chambers of commerce which have subscribed to the study. It was prepared by Thomas A. DeRiemer, "intern" in political science at the non-profit San Francisco foundation.

Donations were recorded from Norris & Broun, Jack Prouty, L. S. Williams, A. E. Alameda, Central Chevrolet, Cloverdale Creamery, Cardozo Bros.; Dr. Merle Buehler, Chapel of the Palms, Walton Drug Company, Miller Shoe Store and Union Oil Company.

By week's end Broun said he had collected another $30 and had ordered the surveys printed.

"What I like me is that Decoto and Alvarado don't even want to know what it says," complained Broun. Both towns have turned down participation in the project.

Broun stressed no recommendations will be made, so that local communities may be free to draw their own conclusions. But, he added:

"When the legislature passes the 'anti-free rider bill,' I know it'll be cheaper for us to incorporate than to let the supervisors run us." This law would force unincorporated areas to form districts to bear more of a share of the costs of county government.

Broun said DeRiemer's survey compares tax costs throughout the Township with towns of comparable valuation elsewhere. He said it shows a maze of overlapping "special districts."

"What we have to do next," he asserted, "is to determine the economical unit to incorporate—whether it's single towns, two or three together, or the whole Township."

In an aside, he reported a similar survey made in Hillview Crest shows that tract would be most benefited by annexing to Hayward.

Assessor Speaks

lands will rise in value fastest if they're next to a town . . . but it will be a gradual rise, and not because of the subdivision, but because of a rise in farm values."

Mrs. Harvey Granger: "Why not wait 'till they are subdivided?" Brothers: "Well, some people buy land and farm it to defray expenses and wait until they can sell at a big price . . ."

A Reporter: "What yardstick do you use to assess gravel pits?" Brothers: "The estimated net revenue over the expected life of the pit."

Chief Deputy Holmes commented on a question by Mrs. Edna Overacker:

"If you permit your lands to become zoned for agriculture you may be putting handcuffs on yourself and won't be able to get those '$9000 an acre' prices because you won't be able to sell for homes."

Some statements by Horstmann: 1. Under the "new system" whereby his deputies actually inspect inventories of big companies, the county last year uncovered almost $50,000,000 in taxable goods which formerly had been allowed to "escape." 2. Exemptions are increasing "at an alarming rate," and of the billion-dollar assessed valuation of Alameda County, almost 20 percent is now exempt to veterans, churches and related groups.

Moderator Don Wolfe announced next week's speaker will be Supervisor Chester E. Stanley, whose topic will be special taxing districts.

fire. So, in a daze, hitchhiked her way to New York via Mexico and Texas.

She characterized her flight as aimless, explaining after she shot Pelton: "I didn't care what became of me."

She was arrested in New York late last month when FBI agents surprised her at a postoffice seeking a reply to a letter she had sent her mother in Germany.

Her frank confession despite her not-guilty plea left the impression Nye intends to seek her trial on a lesser charge—perhaps second-degree murder, which implies a crime of passion.

To the reporters, Hildegard spoke openly of how she and Pelton had been happy in the first year of their love. Eldest of nine children, burdened with their care, and a constant fugitive from wartime bombs, Hildegard had had only one casual boyfriend before the handsome Air Force sergeant—five years her junior—met her after V-E Day.

"Billy was so nice and sweet to me," she said sadly. "He changed when we came over here. Yes, he was a different person."

HINTS FOR HOMEMAKERS

LEARN TO WASH SHIRTS AT HOME

by the General Electric Consumers Institute

Any man will tell you that shirts last longer when they're laundered at home.

And the job isn't a difficult one with up-to-date home laundry equipment to do most of the work for you. So let's start at the beginning—by removing stains, emptying shirt pockets and mending rips and snags before the soiled shirts even get close to a washing machine.

According to the General Electric Consumers Institute, white and color-fast cotton shirts may be washed together; rayons, colored nylons and silks may go into the washer at the same time. But wash white nylons separately, so they won't pick up dye from other fabrics. Woolen shirts should not be washed, unless the manufacturer specifies "washability" on the label.

And like all other washables, shirts should be laundered in soft water. If you live in a hard-water area, water softener added to both wash and rinse water will do away with soap curd that may otherwise cling to the shirts.

Be consistent in your use of either soap or synthetic detergents. And if you find it necessary to change from one to another, "condition" the shirts first by soaking them 3-5 minutes in a solution of water softener.

Wash cotton shirts 10-12 minutes in hot water (140°-150°F.); rayon, silk and nylon shirts 3-5 minutes in warm water (100°-115°F.).

Notes on Nylon

Rinse nylon shirts well. Don't squeeze or wring them. Just hang them right from the washer onto wooden hangers, smooth out collars, seams and cuffs, and let the shirts drip dry. Wire hangers are not recommended because they may rust or leave a ridge in the shirt.

And here are a few final "don'ts" to remember:

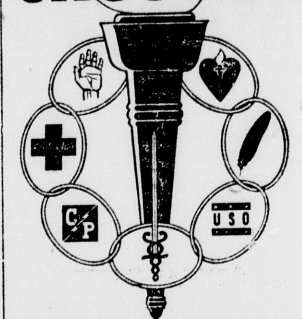

- 1) Don't skimp on the rinse water.
- 2) Don't use bleaches too often, and rinse them out thoroughly. Bleach left in a shirt will weaken the fabric. Never use a chlorine bleach on silk, wool, rayon or nylon.
- 3) Don't starch too heavily. Thin starch gives a crisp finish and helps keep fabrics clean.
- 4) Don't iron the collar crease, especially in a starched shirt. Finger-press it for best results.

NEWARK PTA HEARS REPORT ON QUERY, NOMINATES OFFICERS FOR NEW TERM

At the April 7 meeting of the Newark PTA, Ed Walters, fourth grade teacher, reported the results of the report card questionnaire were 89 per cent favorable.

Seventy-seven per cent approved of the present report-card, Walters added.

Walter Lamp, eighth-grade teacher and recreation director, reported that an average of 50 children used the playground daily during Easter vacation.

Mrs. James Collins, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the following slate of new officers, which was accepted:

Mrs. Willard Walker, president; Mrs. Marty Sammon, first vice-president; Jack MacGregor, second vice-president; Mrs. John Goza, secretary; Mrs. Judson Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. Robert Lloyd, auditor; and Mrs. Neil Sheffield, historian.

Lamp added: "Under our limited finances we cannot afford a baby-sitter for pre-school children. Mothers who wish to leave their young children at the playground should arrange among themselves to take turns supervising them. There is only one paid supervisor at the present time and he cannot supervise the older children and adequately take care of the small ones."

At the PTA meeting, Mrs. Sam Scott, home economics teacher at the Russell City School was guest speaker. Mrs. Scott said:

"The curriculum of secondary schools (high schools) has not changed since it was set up in 1890. At that time it was set up for boys, and girls have been neglected. Theories of education have changed since that time. Then all children studied the same page of the same book at the same time; now it is known that each child is different. Elementary schools have met the change but high schools have not. That change will come because children must be interested to remain in school. Otherwise they lose interest, drop out of school and become delinquent as our economic system no longer absorbs children of that age and there is nothing for them to do except get in trouble."

"Our schools must be kept in the hands of local people. Citizens advisory commissions to the School Boards are good and increasing. Men in the community should spend time studying school needs."

"At a school administrators' convention recently it was stressed that conferences between parents and teachers are the best way to keep parents abreast of the child's progress."

"Our children should be getting war more out of high school than they are. We are living on the principle of our heritage."

DAFFYNOTIONS

Middle age is the time when you can't remember. And 17 is the wonderful age when you weren't listening in the first place.—The Lion.

SUGGESTION

Why doesn't some bright person invent a hollow cake of soap? When the bar is used up there wouldn't be any of those annoying pieces left. — Kingman (Kansas) Leader.

CARD SHARP

The teacher was launching her young class on the mysteries of multiplication.
"Now George," she said, "what is seven times five?"
George hung his head and said nothing. She tried again.
"Now George, suppose I have five fives and you have two fives and we put them together, what do we have?"

He brightened up. "A Canasta." —Wall Street Journal.

THEY SHOULD KEEP IT

We just hate to have some people give us their advice, when we know how badly they need it themselves.—Barber County (Kansas) Index.

BEHIND THE TIMES

Moscow should be told there is no Wall Street today in the old sense. Also, that the popular two-piece suit has virtually done away with vested interests. —Portland Oregonian.

San Francisco is the only city in the United States which sponsors a year-round outdoor band concert.

Here's how one farmer made a safe, but very effective incendiary for trash and rubbish: He used an ordinary 50-gallon steel drum, and cut the top from one end. Four small holes were punched along the rim at the bottom of the other end to serve as a rainwater drain. A half dozen larger, 1 1/2-inch holes were punched six to eight inches above the bottom for a draft. It'll burn rubbish fast, but he keeps a sheet of metal for the top to shut off the flames—in case the fire burns too fiercely.

Mrs. J. A. Silva, accompanied by Mrs. Nora Rogers, will be a delegate to the state convention to be held in Long Beach April 29-30. At this meeting it was announced that Phoebe Hearst Council will give a $100 scholarship to each of the four high schools within the Council. Students are to apply for the scholarships.

Mrs. Graydon Spurlock presented an exhibit of her hand-made rugs and some of her canaries as part of the hobby show.

Oregon was the leading producer of filberts in 1952.

Here's how one farmer made a safe, but very effective incendiary for trash and rubbish: He used an ordinary 50-gallon steel drum, and cut the top from one end. Four small holes were punched along the rim at the bottom of the other end to serve as a rainwater drain. A half dozen larger, 1 1/2-inch holes were punched six to eight inches above the bottom for a draft. It'll burn rubbish fast, but he keeps a sheet of metal for the top to shut off the flames—in case the fire burns too fiercely.

WHO SAID SAVING?

This week we got our annual ride in the Waring Mixer. It happens every year about this time, and we ought to be ready for it, but somehow we never are.

It all started when one of the town thirst-quenchers phoned to ask what they do with their clocks when Daylight Saving time goes into effect on April 26. As a public agency often called on to advise proper garb for afternoon weddings and what a rhinoceros weighs, we also are supposed to know which way clock hands point. We said we'd find out.

The Gentling Influence in the office said she was sure clocks go ahead one hour. It turned out she wasn't so sure—she had to ask the men.

All three were certain just what should be done. That is, they were certain before she asked them. Then it turned into a split vote—with one abstaining. Arguments ran like this:

1. "They go back so we can have an extra hour of daylight."

2. No, clocks go ahead, because I remember the year they wanted to save electricity and use up the daylight instead."

3. "I'm sure they get put back. My wife says it's so I can oversleep."

The uncomplicated was getting more and more complicated. Obviously an outside arbiter had to be called.

We asked Henry Vervais, guardian of the peace, who has been around here quite a while, what he thought. The question tossed Henry into the whirlpool for a minute. Then he came up with the answer.

"The clocks go ahead. I know because I used to play golf with Ken Bruner and when I'd go over to pick up Ken at the SP station their clock was always one hour behind mine."

Thanks, Henry. That makes it official. Anybody want to argue?

IN UNION THERE IS . . . BASEHITS

Us old folks who have trouble getting together can take a lesson from nine or ten youngsters at Washington Hi.

This is the varsity baseball team, currently the hottest thing in the Santa Clara Valley Athletic League.

Without any particular stars, the scrappy Husky baserunners have piled up an impressive record during the first fraction of their season. And it's strictly a team effort, according to their coach, Irv Hird. In fact it just about takes a no-hitter to stop them.

Without moralizing further on the obvious merits of teamwork, let's just say it can be an awfully rough old world without somebody to back you up. You can break a single stick easily, but did you every try to crack a bundle of them?

COME BACK, LITTLE SHEBA

So Decoto wants out of the Township Chamber of Commerce. Some of the businessmen don't think belonging to the central group does them any good. They'd rather keep the $60 dues.

We suppose everyone knows his own particular problem best. But we can't help thinking on a Township basis, and we think anything that splits up the Township weakens every town in it.

Narrow nationalism has been the ruin of some big nations. We recall Germany, Italy, Japan. It appeals to the dissatisfied as a easy way out of their troubles. Somebody says "we'll do better alone," and he gets an audience. But the lone path is the rugged one, and it often leads to defeat.

Decoto has perhaps more difficult problems than its neighbors, but the other towns have theirs too. Maybe they haven't been solved too well in Decoto. All the more reason, therefore, for Decoto to stay in an organization which is set up to tackle issues on an area-wide basis. Growth is coming, but growth can bypass a town whose problems remain unsolved. Grievances, real or fancied, ought not block progress. We sincerely hope Decoto will see it that way.

HEARTS AND HANDS OPEN

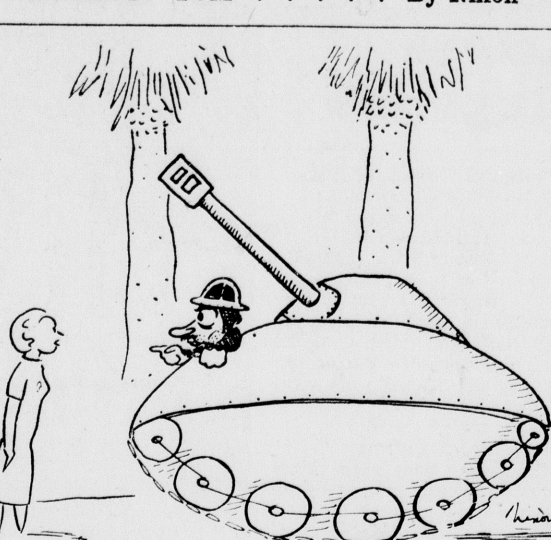

Every so often something happens to touch a community's heart.

It happened, apparently, last week when a little family lost both home and child in a tragic fire in Niles Canyon.

Neighbors, and even groups who didn't know the family, hastened to provide comfort, shelter and material aid for the stricken ones. It was a genuine outpouring of sympathy, expressed with vigor and tenderness.

It makes every one of us want to be a member of such a community of spirit, where the helping hand rules instead of the grasping fist. Pity is, that sometimes it takes a tragedy to bring out the best in us.

Zoning now is premature, Mission San Jose Chamber of Commerce members declared in their meeting Monday night.

MANCEL T. HOUGH DIES IN DECOTO

Mancel Talcott Hough, 78, died April 9 at his home, 117 Ninth Street, Decoto, after an illness of several years. He was the husband of Mary Hough; father of Margaret Held of Michigan, Gladys Wittemore of Oakland, and Manuel R. Hough of Sacramento; stepfather of Elsie Garvey of Oregon, Jimmie Davis of Decoto, and Joe Svoboda of Niles.

Mr. Hough, a retired painter, was a native of Chicago, and a member of Burr Oak Lodge No. 7, IOOF, of Kalamazoo, Michigan.

Services were held Saturday from the parlors of Berge Mortuary Company, Niles, under the auspices of Sycamore Lodge No. 129, Hayward IOOF, with interment in IOOF Cemetery, Irvington.

"Mimeograph" was coined from the Greek "mimeisthai," to imitate, and "graph," writing, and applies to a specific machine.

DECOTO ASKED TO HALT WITHDRAWAL

Decoto's action last week in quitting the Township Chamber of Commerce "pulled the rug" from under the chamber's new president, before he could find out what was bothering the town, the president said this week in an interview.

Maurice B. Marks, recently-installed president of the Township-wide organization, asked the Decoto Chamber to reconsider its action, and declared:

"It was definitely the wrong attitude. They pulled the rug out from under me before I could have a chance to investigate and perhaps correct the conditions they dislike."

Decotoans complained publicly that their wishes were disregarded by the overall chamber, and cited the fact that they were not aided in their request to get the town a bank.

"Are they in the Township Chamber for the good they get out of it, or for what their representatives can do for the Township as a whole?" demanded Marks.

Then he said he pledged himself "to conduct a strong look at ourselves and correct whatever we find to be wrong," said Marks.

"I hope they reverse their action," he concluded.

Fort Gunnybags of Vigilante fame in San Francisco was located on Sacramento Street between Front and Davis Streets.

IS IT A NEW LANGUAGE? KRAFTILERS COMPILE NIFTY HOT-ROD DICTIONARY

(Reprinted from the "Kraftile Bulletin," by Walt Schulte and Les Alt)

What manner of speaking is now upon us?

We find ourselves bewildered by new terms and expressions, as applied to the gasoline wagon, for which the trusty dictionary does not have adequate definitions.

We list herein some of the more common terms with their English translations. It is hoped that the list is not already outmoded by some more modern expressions:

Hot Rod Lingo—Give it a rap. English translation—Kick accelerator a couple of times to make the "pipes" talk (see definition for pipes).

Twin Pots—Dual Carburetors. Headers—Split exhaust manifold.

Twin Pipes—Dual exhaust system.

Dump her into Second—Shift gears to second.

Speed Shift—Change gears without releasing clutch.

Floor It—Press accelerator to floor.

Wind Her Up—Accelerate motor

Delay Water Report

Centerville's inquiry about future water facilities has been sidetracked until the Alameda County Water District revamps its bookkeeping.

Chamber of Commerce Secretary LeRoy Broun made this report Monday. Broun said District Engineer Matt Whitfield wrote in reply to a chamber query that until the district's accounting system is renovated, he will be unable to report.

The San Francisco firm of Ernst & Ernst is currently revamping the system, separating the district's distributing accounting from its conservation work.

SLAPPED AGAIN

The State Department of Motor Vehicles this week imposed another license suspension on Angelo Jacobo, of 401 Fifth Street, Decoto, for driving when his license was suspended.

floors the accelerator, laying down a streak of rubber, the tires squeal like a dozen cats at midnight. Ken has less weight so he gets away fast, but the Cad has more horses and pulls ahead. Ken speed shifts into second and peels plenty. His pipes are singing and the twin pots are really percolating. About this time, they pass us in my gutless wonder (we're cruising at about 60). Ken is winding up pretty tight in second and ready to throw her into high. The Cad driver is looking at his speedometer, probably to see if it's stuck. We understand a cop finally collected the honors of having the fastest car. Whew!

IN MEMORY OF VICE-PRINCIPAL — Washington Hi Principal J. V. Gould wields shovel at dedication ceremonies of Warren Gravestock Memorial Court while members of school's Social Studies class look on. Vice-Principal Gravestock, who died last December, was memorialized by new court, located next to school's south wing. CHANCE TO STUDY ABROAD OFFERED

Want to study abroad? Local high school students may be able to qualify for a Rotary Fellowship, according to A. C. Rasmussen of Alvarado, who handles such matters for the Niles Rotary Club.

Rotary Foundation Fellowships are sponsored by Rotary International to help meet the need for intelligent, far-sighted leadership on the international level.

Students with potential leadership ability are given the opportunity to continue their university work in another country and to acquire a knowledge of its people, their culture, their outlook, and how they live. Any worthy and recognized course of graduate study is considered by the examining committees in passing judgment upon applications.

Applicants must be between 20 and 29 years of age with a good scholastic record, and application may be made after the student has entered his senior or final college year.

Applications are made through the local Rotary Clubs, and the Niles Club would like to be able to sponsor a local student. Rasmussen asks students to contact him at Alvarado 5-5711.

WARM SPRINGS MAY SEEK OWN WATER

Petitions to form a separate public water district around Warm Springs have been forwarded to the Board of Supervisors.

This was the outcome of a meeting of the local Chamber of Commerce last week.

Jack Prouty, member of the board of the Alameda County Water District, "speaking as an individual," hinted the district might let Warm Springs join at reduced rates, leaving conservation costs out. This would be an alternative to the independent district.

The chamber (1) decided to table a request for a $20 contribution to the current incorporation survey until the Coro Foundation intern can explain it personally, and (2) named Allan Hirsch head of a committee to seek sewage facilities.

Agricultural zoning was rapped both by President Charles Venturi and J. C. Lopes, who contended it would block subdivisions.

SET ACRES ZONE HEARING APRIL 30

Residential zoning of Adobe Acres is set for April 30 before Alameda County's Board of Supervisors.

Sitting in Oakland, the supervisors last week set this date to consider whether they will uphold the recommendations of the Planning Commission, which voted for the home zoning three weeks ago, 5 to 2.

Involved is all land between Rock Avenue and Kraftile, and between the Southern Pacific tracks and Alameda Creek.

Opposition is again expected from Santa Cruz Portland Cement Company, which owns some 30 acres southwest of the Western Pacific tracks which it prefers to keep unrestricted for possible future factories.

'BRING 45 FORD SUBPLANTS HERE'

Newarkers who provided the push to bring their town a bank were urged last week to supply the same impetus to get Ford Motor Company supplier factories in their area.

The suggestion came from Jack Greer, vice-president of the Central Valley Bank. Greer and other bank officials were hosts to the Newark committeemen at a dinner in the International Kitchen.

"There are 45 suppliers who will come West now that Ford has announced its big assembly plant for Milpitas," Greer advised. "Your community ought to start now and line up industrial property, at a reasonable price, to bring some of those suppliers to Washington Township."

Committee Spokesman Paul Gy-gax responded to tributes paid by Greer, Bank President Charles P. Partridge, Manager W. G. Perry, and Tony DeMello, advance agent for the institution.

The turkey culture has a wing spread of nearly six feet.

Life-size Wood Carving of Last Supper

Courtesy Christian Science Monitor

BOSTON, MASS.—All the specialized skills of some of the finest craftsmen of New England have been combined to create this life-size copy in wood of the famous painting "The Last Supper" by Leonardo da Vinci.

More than a year was used in preparing the great carving—18½ feet long and 8½ feet wide. The figures, of limewood, are delicately tinted to give a feeling of lifelike reality, and a giant frame of contrasting walnut gives it depth. The carving will be the point of central interest in The Upper Room chapel, now nearing completion in Nashville. It is expected that visitors who view the carving will be moved to spend a few moments in prayer and meditation in keeping with the purpose of The Upper Room—a devotional guide issued in 17 languages and used round the world. The chapel itself is part of the new headquarters building for The Upper Room, the world's most widely used devotional guide. It is believed that it will become a devotional shrine and point of interest for visitors of the Midlands.

The picture shows W. D. Irving, of Irving and Casson, New York and Boston, who have produced wood carvings for some of America's greatest churches and cathedrals. The wood carving was done from a model created by Ernest Pelligrini.

ALVARADO, 'CREST FLOOD CURB CONFA

Hearings to set up a county flood-control zone extending as far south as Alvarado and Hillview Crest will open May 7 before the Board of Supervisors.

Under consideration will be Zone 3-a, an estimated $3,700,000 tax-financed project which covers Hayward, Mt. Eden and the two Township communities.

Until it becomes a reality, county officials refuse to permit more large tracts like Hillview Crest to be built in the area, because of heavy storm water runoffs onto neighboring lands.

The initial hearing is at 2 p.m. in the Oakland court house.

Today, with more than 35 telephones at work for every 100 people in our territory, you can now reach more people, faster than ever before.

Why you're using your telephone more today

In 1945, the average Westerner made 465 calls a year—today he makes some 621 calls annually

There are good reasons why Westerners are now making more telephone calls. Today, service is so widely available—in homes, in the business world and in public places—that you can now call nearly twice as many people, and they, of course, can call you. For fast as the West's population has grown these past years, the telephone has grown at an even faster rate. We've also made many improvements in service—which have been important in making your telephone ever more useful and valuable to you.

Faster long distance service. We've sharply reduced the time it takes to complete long distance calls, too. Operators now dial many long distance calls direct to the distant telephone... and can usually complete your call while you hold the line. In many places, customers can now dial their own calls to an increasing number of nearby communities. And we're working in many other ways to expand and improve the West's telephone system—to bring you more—and more useful—telephone service.

On the job for pennies a call

'Round the clock and 'round the year, your telephone is on the job—ready to serve—carrying your messages for pennies a call. Surely, few other everyday things you buy are so high in value, so low in cost.

Why gas dollars go farther in the FORD SIX

No Six-cylinder engine in any car at any price reduces gas-wasting engine friction so effectively as Ford's high-compression Mileage Maker Six! The main reason for this is that the pistons travel a shorter distance for every mile you travel. This means that less of the gas you buy goes to overcome piston friction (the major cause of engine friction). It also means that there is less engine wear... and so your Ford will be worth more longer! But remember, this most modern of all Six-cylinder engines is just one of 41 "Worth More" features that make the '53 Ford worth more when you buy it... worth more when you sell it.

Pink Poodle in GM Show

A PINK POODLE is a star member of the cast—which also includes "dream cars," production automobiles, household appliances, 100 engineering exhibits and a host of entertainers—at the General Motors Motorama of 1953. The admission-free Motorama is scheduled May 1-7 at San Francisco's Civic Auditorium.

The poodle appears with Joan Pederson, one of five beautiful models who display striking gowns in the "Fashion Firsts" show, a Motorama feature. Famed fashion designers styled the gowns along lines suggested by 1953 GM cars which share the "Fashion Firsts" spotlight with the girl models against a musical background of a 24-piece orchestra and 14-voice chorus.

Plan Welfare, Plea

"Problems of San Leandro in the last 10 years will be problems of Washington Township in the next 10 years."

Thus David Gilmore, Oakland attorney and United Fund executive, prefaced his talk last week to the Niles Rotary Club.

Gilmore said social planning is as important as planning streets and subdivisions. He said it must be organized beforehand, then complemented the Township for its work already done at the level of the United Crusade, Community Chest, and Salvation Army. He added:

"You should have a family-service agency to cope with tragedies like the fire in Niles Canyon."

Gilmore predicted a series of local welfare councils will be formed to run welfare in Alameda County, exerting their influence on a central council.

He was introduced by Bruce Michael.

'ARSENIC, OLD LACE' IS SENIOR PLAY

"Arsenic and Old Lace," the famous comedy on a macabre theme, is Washington Hi's senior class play now in rehearsal for presentation May 14 and 15.

Written by Joseph Kesselring, "Arsenic and Old Lace" was an outstanding success from the time it was introduced in New York prior to World War II.

In the high school production, Donna Moore and Marilyn Walker will play the leads—a pair of prim old maids who employ lethal dosages in elderberry wine to remove unhappy oldsters from the land of the living. Their brother, who imagines he is Theodore Roosevelt, will be portrayed by Don Leach.

Student directors are Shirley Scarlett and Phil Pineda.

SPORTS SPOTLIGHT

This week our two featured athletes are John Chacon and Dick Arington.

Chacon is in his last year at Washington and has been one of the school's most colorful performers. He has starred in baseball and football.

Baseball is his first love, and according to Baseball Mentor Irv Hird, Chacon could have a bright future in the national pastime. He has put in three years on the varsity, the first as an outfielder, and the last two as a catcher. He possesses a fine throwing arm and is potentially a long ball hitter. So far this year he has clouted two home runs that have carried a good 400 feet each.

Johnny, better known as "Chico," is also a good football prospect. He played two years on Coach Jud Taylor's varsity eleven. Both years Chico has played the fullback spot in Taylor's single and double wing. He is a good passer and hard runner. He earned an honorable mention in this year's SCVAL voting.

As far as college is concerned, Chico is not decided.

Dick is also in his senior year and has taken a major part in basketball, baseball and football.

He played three years of basketball under Coach Don Wolfe. He possesses a deadly shooting eye, and is a good rebounder.

Baseball is his first love and he also has put in three years diamond service. He has played both shortstop and second base.

Arington bats and throws right-handed and is noted as a long ball hitter. He has been one of the most consistent hitters on this year's ball club.

This year was Dick's first of football. He was a reserve varsity halfback.

Dick is planning to attend college at San Jose State.

*Sports*WASHINGTON NINE MEETS A BUZZ-SAW;
BOWS TO FREMONT'S NO-HITTER, 2 TO 0

By BOB HIRD

At Washington Hi's expense, Fremont Pitcher Don Griffin worked his way into the SCVAL Hall of Fame last Thursday with a no-hit, no-run game, as the Indians upset the favored Huskies 2-0.

It was the first time the feat has been accomplished against one of Coach Irv Hird's varsity nines.

The Indians tallied their first run in the opening stanza on two singles and an error.

The Huskies' first scoring opportunity came in the third when leadoff man Don Santos reached first on an error. Fremont put a stop to this when Catcher John Chacon hit into a twin killing.

The Indians' final tally came in the fourth on a triple and a single. The right-handed Griffin, who is only a junior, struck out three and walked the same number.

The Huskies were hitting the ball hard all afternoon, but always right into someone's glove. In the final canto Second Baseman Dick Arington poled a long ball into left field with Raul Orozco on base. An Indian, playing extra deep, robbed Arington of a four-bagger with a spectacular catch.

Pitcher Bob Lunsford went the full seven innings for the Males, yielding five hits, striking out five and walking two. It was his first loss of the season.

Other games in the SCVAL found Mount View dumping Los Gatos 5-0, James Lick defeating Santa Clara 4-1, and Campbell trouncing Live Oak 13-2.

Today the Huskies take to the road as they travel to Santa Clara to face the Panthers at Washington Park.

Bearcats Ready

Centerville's baserunning Bearcats open their 1953 season Sunday on the Washington Hi diamond against a Native Sons' nine from San Francisco.

Manager Frank Mayer expects to field a club built around veteran sluggers like Stan Roderick and Don Lemos, and bolstered by a crop of new willowmen uncovered at last week's tryouts.

Game time is 1:30 p.m.

The miles that come in cans

Not too long ago, you took "pot luck" when you bought oil for your car. It all came out of a big drum. Whether you got the right weight and grade was often a matter of luck. Today, there are hundreds of different lubricants. Each is engineered to do a specific job in your car. Each is identified clearly for you in an attractive, tamper-proof can.

Oil, of course, isn't the only automotive product that comes in cans today. There are anti-freezes, windshield cleaners, tire-repair kits, nuts and bolts for minor repair jobs. Also waxes and car wash. These are just a few of the products that fill the millions of cans used in California every year.

All are important contributions to the miles of happy motoring you enjoy. Moreover, they bring to American life economic benefits you probably never even thought of. Thousands of jobs, for example, are created. Purchasing power is increased. New businesses are able to get started.

It's true of any business in America—people working together make miracles happen. Consumers, workers and investors have made it possible for the American Can Company to do great things in the past, and to promise even greater ones for the future.
